Oregon City Reserve Officer Robert Libke died yersterday after being shot . Officer Libke was not paid for his service to his community. His wife is pregnant with their baby.

Those wishing to assist Robert's family can do so as follows:
1) Stop at any branch of the Clackamas Federal Credit Untion. Donations are to the Clackamas County Peace Officers' Benevolent Foundation into the Officer Robert Libke Fund.

2) Mail a donation to the Clackamas County Peace Officers' Benevolent Foundation: PO Box 426, Oregon City, OR 97045. Make checks payable to the CCPOBF and put Officer Robert Libke Fund on the memo line.

Any cards or notes with best wishes will be forwarded to the family. The Benevolent Foundation is a 501(c)(3) charitable non-profit. www.ccpobf.org

The above photo shows an AMR ambulance crew at the scene of an unresponsive adult male at 1000 Acres. Corbett Fire volunteers and a deputy were also on scene. The deputy insured that three roaming pitbulls were secured by the man's friend. A needle/syringe were found in the man's pocket. Deputies recently conducted a "sweep" of the area to assist the homeless with resources and to clean up a large amount of garbage.

During the past few weeks several persons (including myself) have seen a what appears to be a black coyote in the area of the Corbett School, Rickert Rd and Mershon. One citizen strongly believed it was a wolf. He showed me photos of a sheep and a doe that were killed on his property. Both had bite marks on the throat. This is just a reminder to take precautions to secure your pets and livestock. Small children should also not be left unattended.

Citizens have reported numerous school related policital signs being stolen and/or vandalised. Despite differences in opinion or political stance, it's illegal to steal or vandalise property belonging to another. The theft of a sign costing only $5 is still considered theft (Theft III, Oregon Revised Statute 164.043). A suspect vehicle was reported in one of the incidents: a dark blue mini-van, possibly a Dodge Caravan, with tinted windows.
