THE CITIZEN PATROL NEEDS YOU!

- We need a few more members that are willing to donate at least 6-hours per month of their time.

- Members receive free training and knowledge of policing trends in the community.

- Members patrol the gorge area parking lots and trailheads to deter vehicle break-ins and other crimes. They also patrol at the Corbett school and assist with other details and community events.

- Members patrol in county owned vehicles designated for the Citizen Patrollers.

- The patrol hours are done on your own schedule with minimal prescheduled obligations.

- Members patrol with one or more partners.

- Citizen Patrollers receive training and instruction in numerous areas such as:

patrol tactics, suspect identification, radio communications, driver safety, emergency/ disaster response, confrontational simulation and more.

- Please refer to this month's Citizen Patrol Update Newsletter or contact Deputy Graziano (listed below) for more information.
